

The COLUMBIA Orchestra

Your Community's Music

ANNOUNCES AUDITIONS FOR THE 2019-2020 SEASON

If you play an orchestral instrument and enjoy the challenge of performing the best of the symphonic repertoire with an inspiring conductor, don't miss the opportunity to audition for the Columbia Orchestra. The Columbia Orchestra is a volunteer adult community orchestra dedicated to fostering a lifelong appreciation of and participation in classical music. Join us for an exciting season performing great music! We also keep an active substitute list, so please do not hesitate to contact us.

CURRENT VACANCIES

Strings—permanent positions

Woodwinds, Brass, and Percussion—substitute list

AUDITION REQUIREMENTS

(Lasting no longer than 15 minutes total)

Audition requirements and excerpts are posted on the orchestra's website:

www.columbiaorchestra.org/auditions.

AUDITION TIMES AND LOCATION

Sunday, August 4, 2019 (12:00–4:00 PM) – all instruments

Monday, August 5, 2019 (7:00–10:00 PM) – all instruments

Columbia Orchestra Office, Howard County Center for the Arts

8510 High Ridge Road, Suite 16, Ellicott City, MD 21043

TO SCHEDULE AN AUDITION

E-mail cornio.anne@gmail.com or phone (410) 465-8777, extension 4

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

To learn more about the Columbia Orchestra, Music Director Jason Love, concert schedules, and programming for the 2019–2020 season, please visit our website www.columbiaorchestra.org. Rehearsal schedules and more member information can be found via the “for members” link at the bottom of each page.