

Strand Theater Company Presents

DETROIT '67

by Dominique Morisseau

Directed by Erin Riley

Assistant Directed by Lauren Erica Jackson

In 1967 Detroit, Motown music is getting the party started, and Chelle and her brother Lank are making ends meet by turning their basement into an after-hours joint. But when a mysterious woman finds her way into their lives, the siblings clash over much more than the family business. As their pent-up feelings erupt, so does their city, and they find themselves caught in the middle of the '67 riots.
